TECH & COMPLIANCE

Are prospects unable to open your Avini website link through text messages?

Apple has released a new feature that automatically blocks links in text messages if the sender's number is not saved as a contact on their phone. This is to prevent spam and clicking on harmful links. This feature is enabled by default, which could be why prospects cannot click your Avini website links or watch videos sent from the Avini Advantage App.

What does this mean for you?

Before sending links from the Avini Advantage App, you should instruct the person you're sending information to save you as a contact. The links will automatically be clickable as long as they save your name and number. As a rule of thumb, when meeting people, always ask them to save your number and contact info in their phone before ending the conversation. If the prospect is reluctant to save your number, the chances of closing the deal are slim.

Will this feature Apple released go away?

No. With all the spam and text message scams, the chances of this feature being turned off by default are slim to none. We always keep an eye out for changes and will keep everyone updated as new features are released on phones that may prevent prospects from accessing the information you send them.

Michael Polak III,

Michael Polak
VP of IT and Compliance

Cell Defender™

Rik J. Deitsch, MS Biochemistry
Chief Scientific Officer, Avini Health

Cell Defender™ is a revolutionary product that is changing the way people think about detoxifying their bodies. This unique micronized and activated Detoxolite™ colloidal suspension is the original colloidal clinoptilolite zeolite product, and is supported by over a dozen clinical studies, including trials published in peer-reviewed journals.

Cell Defender™ has been clinically proven to help remove heavy metals, toxins, and other harmful substances from the body, support a healthy immune system, and balance pH levels. It is 100% natural, non-toxic, and safe for long-term use.

Don't let toxins and heavy metals control your health. Take control with Cell Defender™.

WHITE DIAMOND DIRECTOR

"What a great time for reflection. I'm choosing NOW, To Be the one and find 3.

White Diamond Director and find 3 Diamond Directors

Avini Health is the absolute proof that dreams really do come true. I dreamed the dream and now I am living it! What's your dream? To make a difference? To save lives? To have financial freedom? Name it, claim it and let's get started.

I'm training and mentoring people daily. If they can describe it, we can build it. Avini has constructed the foundation that will provide a secure place for us all to dream big and build smart. Our products give us the building blocks however one of our greatest products is the opportunity. The people who are building the opportunity are honestly helping more people. They are helping more people get freedom from disease, discomfort, and despair.

How? It's so simple to identify your passionate purpose.

Part time, full-time or big time. Avini is the one thing you probably can't say sometimes. It deserves your time.

The Avini road to success has become a highway, with big green signs identifying road markers and how to get there. Silver, Gold, Sapphire, Ruby, Emerald, Diamond, White, Blue and Black Diamond each one a worthy destination on your journey. Our Avini Family has and are building the safest most electrifying strongest home ever in Network Marketing. We are doing that by leading by example.

We can't ask people to do what we aren't willing to do.

Be one? Choose the rank!

Find 3 people who will do what you do to get what they want. It's simple math.

Become a silver executive... find and help 3 people get to silver executive, one in each of your Three legs anywhere at any level.

You're now gold! Help 3 people do what you have done. You are Sapphire and each of you is advancing.

We are not using people up, we are lifting people up, if you help people get what they want you are duplicatable. You are a successful leader!

Identify at your desired rank. Diamond? Then help 3 people see their desires become reality.

Repeat the process: Be one, find 3 to become one.

Now is the time to grow it! Put your boat in the water, the tide is rising!

Merry Christmas and may you build your dream life of health, success, and wealthness in 2025!

You are loved."

Message from
Douglas Dickey, VP of Sales

Wow! What a year 2024 has been for Avini Health. Congratulations to all the new Customers and Distributors who joined this last month. I always say that the best decision is always to get involved and get your place in the downline.

December will undoubtedly be our best month ever in Avini. Just in time to shift gears into a faster and more powerful gear. For those who have been sitting on the fence and contemplating building a business with Avini, it is time to put on your running shoes and stretch those legs. You will not want to miss out on the amazing timing (in which you never get another chance) with Avini. Avini Health will be a 100 million dollar company going forward and you have the opportunity to be successful in this company (if you're not already there). Many, many Distributors are paying for their own and their families' products from money earned helping others hear about Avini products.

During the holidays, we see others who we have known for years, we ask them how they are doing, and what's new in their life. An experience recently happened to me. I was talking to a high school friend about what I was doing now with all my time. He has seen that I travel all the time, but didn't know I was sharing the message of Avini with others. When I told him Avini was a network Marketing Company, his face alone was a tell-tale sign of his distaste for MLM. He asked why in the world we would choose MLM as the purposeful direction to bring our products to the world. This was my response... "Your kidding Right?" The Network Marketing Platform is the very best way to bring experiential products to market. Especially if the product demands an explanation or testimonial of its effectiveness and safety. When a Distributor shares their experience with confidence about the products or the ability to make a living doing what they love sharing life saving information, it carries across with enthusiasm and the message that others can also do this successfully." Immediately, I felt so excited to see his face agree and he said, "Well I could see me sharing with others if the products work for me." So I told him with the amount of monthly sales and all the testimonials we currently have, it seems it is working for most people that try it. I then told him about the benefit to the Distributor to only be out a few dollars to get started with no obligations, and that he could use his years of people equity to make a difference in others lives he knows and cares about. And do it part or full time while he learned from others succeeding in Avini. His excitement was crazy as he asked how he could get involved and how long till he could expect to make a decent amount of money each month. I showed him the volume requirements in the Compensation Plan and then showed him a simple 1, 2, 3 plan listed in the Avini Advantage App. Helping others simply become successful Silver Executives. The whole conversation lasted 20 minutes, and I could see life back in his eyes dreaming again about possibilities in his life. I showed him how timing is so important in these opportunities. I talk all the time about the products and the opportunity Avini offers us, but I could feel my friend gain some vision to improve his life physically and financially. In this life, we all need to have that vision to gain more control over our lives in health and finances. This month of December we celebrate many holidays depending on our religious choices. For me, Christmas is a wonderful time of Imagination and Gratitude for all that we have in our lives. This year I am so grateful for my faith in God, my family, my close friends, and for the thousands of friends I have been able to meet and share with such powerful times. I cannot imagine a better life than the one I have. I am so blessed. From the initial vision of Avini Health to the place we are now. WOW.

As my amazing friend Dave Johnson always said to me when giving advice, "Well, UPWARD and ONWARD." The New Year is for sure going to be exciting and life changing with many new challenges and opportunities to grow.

Let's GO FOR IT!

Thank you everyone for being the greatest part of Avini and making this all happen.

Sincerely Yours,
Douglas Dickey
