AVINI HEALTH[®]
ADVANCES IN NATURAL HEALING

Message from Neil Roth, CEO

"From becoming stay at home Moms and Dads, to paying for the products they need for their families, to creating a "plan B" for the future, our extremely lucrative Compensation Plan is adding to the health gifts we have been sharing and benefiting from."

The Gift of a Better Life!

As many of you know, we are in the middle of our Avini Vision Tour. We just completed Portland, Oregon last weekend and are heading for Arlington, Virginia on October 19th. At these meetings, Rik, Doug, and I get to talk to all the Distributors who participated. And as I listened to everyone, the theme of the Gift of a Better Life reverberated with me.

For some people, it was getting rid of pain that they had for, in some cases, decades! Or having their kids reduce the effects of Autism and ADHD. Actually, I can't even begin to list all the problems that have been solved by Cell Defender™ and what the body can do to "fix" itself when it is healthy. And then, there is the weight management, anxiety, infections — the list seems endless. But interestingly enough, the number of Distributors talking about how the business itself has changed their lives was really dramatic. From becoming stay at home Moms and Dads, to paying for the products they need for their families, to creating a "plan B" for the future, our extremely lucrative Compensation Plan is adding to the health gifts we have been sharing and benefiting from.

Each of you should realize that you are the purveyors of changing people's lives in both Health and Wealth, and that the Gift of a Better Life can be had by all! Keep up the good work and thank you for all you do!

TECH & COMPLIANCE

Michael Polak III,
VP of IT and Compliance

I am excited that since our Vision Tours, more Distributors are jumping in and learning about our Avini Advantage App. I have some common questions that I have received during my discussions and I wanted to share a few of them with you.

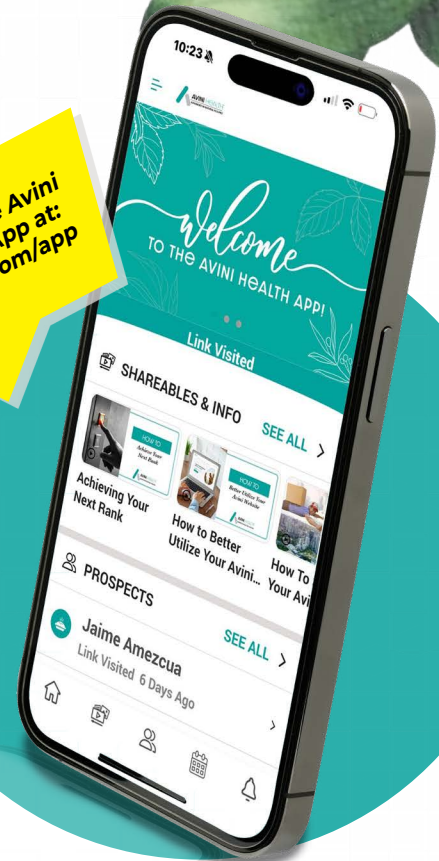

Q: Can I send a video to multiple people in the APP at one time instead of one person at a time?

A: To stay compliant with anti-spam laws we can only allow one link to be sent to one person at a time. This also helps keep track of individual engagement with your prospect. Sending to several people will cause you to lose visibility about who watched the video.

Q: The words on my app are bunched together, how can I fix the font issue?

A: All phones are different and settings vary, however, the main reason this issue happens is that the "Zoom/Large Font" feature is on. By lowering the "Zoom/Font Size" you can see the words start to separate and can read the video titles again.

Download the Avini Advantage App at:
avinihealth.com/app

Q: Where is the best place for me to learn about the app and have a walkthrough on using the app?

A: We built the avinihealth.com/APP page just for this reason. You can access four easy training videos, step-by-step guides, and Zooms that explain how to use the app.

Like I always say, "You cannot break the APP. Press every button, send videos to multiple people, and enjoy tracking your prospects."

Health From the Outside In: Topical Convenience from

Rik J. Deitsch, MS Biochemistry
Chief Scientific Officer, Avini Health

With the release of the 2mL sample packs of the Plus Relief Topical Gel and the Nano Silver Topical Gel, Avini Health Distributors have a new opportunity for both convenient use of these amazing products, as well as the ability to provide samples to potential customers and new Distributors. This can become an exciting time of growth for Avini Health as we make it easier and easier to share these products and see the amazing results.

We know that approximately 40 million American adults (~19%) suffer from chronic pain and the treatment for all of this pain comes with a hefty price tag. According to the American Pain Society, the estimated cost of pain to the US economy is over $100 billion, with $20 billion being spent directly on analgesics.

Non-opiate, Non-narcotic, All Natural, Non-addictive, Long lasting, Safe and Effective relief from pain and inflammation.

Recently, there has been a surge in the research of natural products for the treatment of pain. Among these natural products are extracts from venomous animals. Snake venoms, in particular, have been used in medicine for more than a century to treat thrombosis, arthritis, cancer, immune dysfunction, viral infections, delirium, hallucinations, chorea, and melancholia. The primary components of these venoms are neuroactive peptides — small proteins that bind to specific receptors in the Central Nervous System (CNS) and Peripheral Nervous System (PNS). Case reports published more than 50 years ago detail the use of small amounts of cobra venom for the treatment of pain related to trigeminal neuralgia. The principal peptide in cobra venom, alpha-cobratoxin, is known to bind to a very specific subset of the nicotinic acetylcholine receptor (nAChR). This particular receptor is found on white blood cells and in the CNS (central nervous system). Modulating the function of that receptor mediates pain signals and has been shown to prevent inflammation. It does so by blocking neuromuscular transmission, thereby reducing the release of acetylcholine (ACh). By acting directly on nerve transmission, and with the specificity of peptide binding, these compounds provide relief with a very narrow potential for side effects. The binding potential of these peptides are very high, therefore requiring only minute doses to be effective. Oral doses as low as 35 mcg/mL and topical doses as low as 20mcg/mL have shown clinical efficacy. Additionally, the action of the peptides can be many times longer than that of opiates, studies showing cobra venom lasting up to six times longer than morphine.

The newest therapy based on this research has resulted in the production of the Avini Plus Relief brand of analgesics. The Plus Relief products contain neuroactive peptides derived from Asian cobra venom. In clinical studies, Plus Relief has been proven safe and effective in reducing inflammation and relieving pain without the side-effect profile of the traditional therapies. Non-opiate, Non-narcotic, All Natural, Non-addictive, Long lasting, Safe and Effective relief from pain and inflammation.

The Plus Relief Topical Gel is a miracle for topical pain relievers. While most topical analgesics create either heat, cold or numbness — Plus Relief does none of that. Additionally, all other topical pain relievers have a terrible smell. Plus Relief has no smell at all. No heat – No cold – No numbness – No smell!!! Just all-natural pain relief from the cobra venom peptides.

In addition to the sample packs of the Plus Relief Topical Gel, Avini Health is also launching sample packs of the Nano Silver Topical Gel.

Silver has long been used medically for its innate antibacterial, anti-viral, and anti-fungal properties. The problem is that most silver products on the market will ionize — break down to individual, charged silver atoms. These ions can actually damage healthy cells and healthy bacteria along with disease-causing microbes. The wonder of Avini Health's Nano Silver is the use of a proprietary technology that creates stable nanoparticles of silver. These particles range from seven to ten nanometers each and are stabilized with a two-atom shell of silver oxide. This makes sure that the silver nanoparticles will not ionize (break down to atomic silver). At this size range, the silver retains its properties against pathogens, but will not harm healthy cells and healthy tissue. Avini Health has the exclusive rights to this proprietary technology at this concentration of 31 parts per million of silver.

The Plus Relief Topical Gel provides pain relief within 20 minutes for over 90% of product users. This makes it an incredible product to sample.

The Nano Silver Topical Gel is antibacterial, anti-fungal and antiviral. It promotes healthy skin and should certainly be used if you have ANY topical issues at all; from a cut or scrape to a sunburn—Avini's Nano Silver will prevent infection and speed up healing.

With the release of these new sample packs, our Distributors and customers can have the convenience of easy product availability; while it's incredibly easy to share these two great products with all of the people that you encounter that need to ease pain or discomfort and to promote healthy skin.

The Plus Relief Topical Gel provides pain relief within 20 minutes for over 90% of product users. This makes it an incredible product to sample.

"Time flies when you're having fun or when you're busy. This first year in Avini has been the shortest year I've ever experienced. I've been busy, and I've had more fun than at any other time in my adult life. Who knew there were so many amazing people in the world just a phone call away? Who knew how many lives could be changed by something as simple as a daily shower on the inside? I am so grateful for the many Avinians who have made this past year possible, and I'm especially grateful to my team, who have helped Missy and me reach Diamond. Thank you, thank you."

"We feel incredibly blessed that Neil Roth, Doug Dickey, and Rik Deitsch created Avini Health, a truly once-in-a-lifetime company. The products are life-changing, and the compensation plan is incredible. Achieving the initial ranks is easily attainable, but going to Ruby and beyond requires a strong team that we have been fortunate to build. While we planned to be Emerald Apprentice by the upcoming March 2025 Summit, being part of MJ's Mental Success Tracks Training with some of our team inspired us to achieve the rank much sooner. We are so grateful for our amazing team, upline, and dedicated Corporate Staff. Thank you, Avini Health, for being here for all of us!"

Message from
Douglas Dickey, VP of Sales

Congratulations to everyone whose Rank or Level advanced in the month of August.

What an amazing month we just finished, and now September is ramping up to be even better. Advancement is super important as it is a direct correlation to lives being helped by our amazing products. Volume is equal to dollars and products are making a difference. I often hear of many Distributors who shy away from the opportunity to make money that Avini offers, and they just focus on the products for themselves. I get it, and it's wonderful that Avini offers the opportunity to just be a wholesale buyer and save money. But are you missing out? As a wholesale buyer, you are contributing to the system when you buy products for yourself and your family. But, what if you shared Avini's mission with just three people? This could be the catalyst that changes everything.

What happens over time is many of them will share with others and the group will grow larger and more active. Over time, you may gain a large group continuing to reach out to others, sharing with those they care about and on and on. Just sharing with three people who get involved can recoup your Activation Pack costs. This is always a good thing. Those three people have the same opportunity to share and recoup their activation expenses. At that point, with your three Distributors each buying 2 bottles of Cell Defender™ a month, and their three Distributors each doing the same, you can earn enough to pay for the average amount in monthly products. Over time, just one more level of sharing can earn you an extra $6,000 to $12,000 per year. That's more than a $3 per hour, full-time raise in pay.

Because Avini products are so powerful and effective, many people buy much more than just a couple of bottles of Cell Defender™ each month. Imagine the numerous lives that can be changed from just 3 or more Distributors that you introduce to Avini, and if they do the same. Avini isn't just another Network Marketing company. We are very special and meant to be here at this important time in America. Saving lives everyday — physically and financially.

Here are just a few points that you should know about Avini Health. Avini Health is poised to be a powerhouse in multiple industries for these reasons.

- Avini is within the largest and most important industry to people: healthcare.
